

Stacey Strickland is a nuclear safety engineer by profession, which has taken him for extended assignments to locations including Washington, DC, Washington State, Los Alamos, NM, Livermore, CA, Amarillo, TX, and Savannah River Site in South Carolina. Stacey retired from the US Navy after 28 years commissioned service in the Navy and Naval Reserves.

Stacey was born in Charlotte, NC, in 1958, and grew up in neighboring York County, SC, on Lake Wylie. Stacey attended The Citadel on Navy ROTC scholarship, graduating in 1980 with a BS in Civil Engineering. Stacey later completed an MBA from The Citadel in 1994. Stacey is married to wife Sharon. They have one son, Michael, and cat, Sammy. Stacey and Sharon have lived in their current home in Charleston, SC, since 1987.

Stacey's home church is Northbridge Baptist Church in Charleston, SC, where he has been a member for 25 years.

As a result of submitting and trusting God to guide him through personal challenges (growth opportunities), Stacey experienced the transformative power resulting in a growing relationship in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Stacey has assisted SHIELD Ministries in leading Bible studies, Celebrate Recovery small group meetings, and music during worship services.
